

MICHIGAN: A GEOGRAPHY

Chapter 24: Between the Glaciers and Europeans: The People of Michigan from 12 000 to 400 Years Ago

Author: Bill Lovis, MSU

Imagining the Past

First Colonization: The Paleoindians (12 000 to 10 000 Years Ago)

Modern Forests, Changing Environment, and Mobile Hunter-gatherers:

The Archaic (10 000 to 2500 Years Ago)

Ceramics, Horticulture, and Fishing: Woodland Economic Intensification and the

Changing Social Landscape (2500 to 400 Years Ago)

Ceramics and the Woodland Period

Horticulture

Fishing

The Changing Social Landscape

Focus Box 1. Focus on Ceramics.

Focus Box 2. Focus on Intensification, Storage and Transformation